

The Road to Recovery Web Event Season Continues With:

Webcast: Addiction In the Home: Healing Lives, Families, and Communities
Premieres Wednesday, August 3, 2005

<http://www.recoverymonth.gov/2005/multimedia/w.aspx?ID=412>

Addiction affects more than one life: family, friends, and communities also experience the effects of a person's disorder. This program will explore the full spectrum of needs and services related to the family of someone with an addiction disorder.

Join host Ivette Torres, Associate Director for Consumer Affairs, Center for Substance Abuse Treatment (CSAT), Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA), U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS), and a panel of experts in this important and timely Webcast as they analyze key factors that can support or impede the recovery process, including employment, health care, children, mental health, and housing.

Panelists include:

- Charles G. Curie, Administrator, Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA), U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS)
- Dr. Robert J. Ackerman, Director, Mid-Atlantic Addiction Training Institute
- Patricia A. Denney, Coordinator, Family Wellness Program, Father Martin's Ashley
- Pat Mosby, Care Coordinator, Community Kids.

This Webcast also contains personal stories about people in recovery and interviews from treatment providers and others in the field who help make recovery possible.
